The Heart of MetroWest: Where there's something for everyone!

FRAMINGHAM DOWNTOWN

Historic Memorial Building

Did you know?

There are over 100 business, cultural, and civic institutions in Downtown Framingham, including:

- Nevins Hall in Historic Memorial Building
- Amazing Things Arts Center in Hollis Street Fire Station
- Danforth Museum of Art
- Framingham Civic League
- Framingham Public Library—the 6th most heavily used library in the State of Massachusetts!

The Best of Both Worlds: Urban Living in a Small-Town Setting

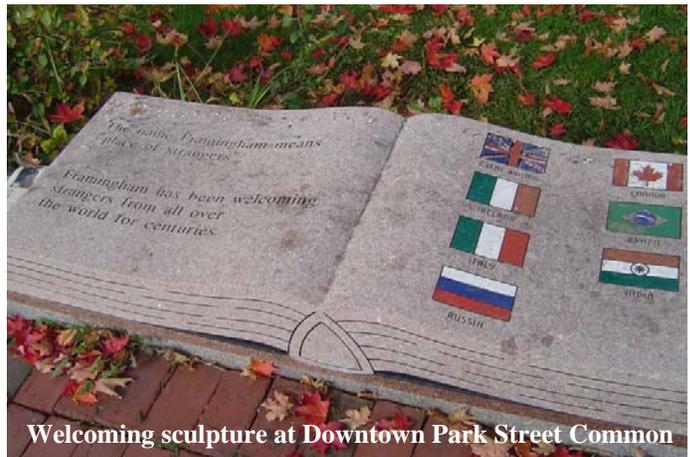

- Condominiums, apartments, and homes within walking distance of countless services and employment opportunities.
- Regional bus service to major shopping centers and 9 neighboring communities.
- Regular MBTA commuter rail service to Boston and Worcester right from Downtown!

Distinctiveness and Character

- Downtown Framingham boasts over 30 ethnic enterprises, including Asian, Hispanic, Brazilian, and Eastern European.
- Shoppers looking for alternatives to big box stores and chain restaurants can enjoy Brazilian and Asian cuisine, hip imported clothing, and quality, attentive services from family-owned operations.
- Downtown Framingham is on the National Register of Historic Places and 2 Downtown buildings are honored with a 2006 Massachusetts Historical Commission Preservation Award in the Restoration and Rehabilitation Category.
