

FRAMINGHAM COMING TOGETHER

A COMMUNITY FORUM

All Town Residents
Are Invited

Thursday, November 10, 2016

7:00 pm

Framingham High School

115 A Street • Framingham, MA

The Framingham Interfaith Clergy Association along with our local community partners would like to invite the residents of the town of Framingham to Framingham Coming Together - a community forum.: The Media: Racism Bias, and images of Community. This free exchange of ideas will build upon our previous conversations. Combating the culture of violence in our community and whether Media contributes or distracts from Community is all of our concern. It is the responsibility of all of Framingham. Our coming together with Ms Tina Martin, WGBH Boston as our Moderator. Panelist include Dr Niall Stephens, Framingham State University, Scott Mercer, Access Framingham, Rick Holmes, Metrowest Daily News, Lee T. Boddie, Chanel 7 Media and Clive McFarlane, Worcester Telegram and Gazette, Ilma Paixao, WSRO and 102.1 Framingham to name a few. When we educate ourselves and work together as Framingham residents we can make a difference. All of Framingham is invited to come together and share stories, experiences and resources surrounding the Media and Community and to empower the community of Framingham to continue the process of moving forward in meeting the challenges of a community that cares.
