

Framingham PUBLIC LIBRARY

Look here first.

49 Lexington Street ■ Framingham, MA 01702-8218
Phone: 508-532-5570 ■ Fax: 508-532-5575
framinghamlibrary.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 5/11/2017

For further information, contact:

Dawn Dellasanta, Borrower Services Specialist

Framingham Public Library

508-532-5570

ddellasanta@minlib.net

Framingham Public Library Salutes Veterans

Framingham, MA - Framingham Public Library will host a special event between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 20, 2017, Armed Forces Day, to honor our Veterans and unveil the new Veteran's Resource Centers, which will be available at both Libraries. Free and open to all, the event will feature Guest Speaker Larry Kirby, WWII Veteran and author of Stories from the Pacific, as well as activities for children and young adults, free food and entertainment, a visit from a Combat K9 and her handler, and talks and resources on accessing Veteran's benefits.

The new Veteran's Resource Centers will provide a wide variety of resources including a collection of books and materials pertinent to Veterans, a designated computer linked to important Veteran related websites like the VA and eBenefits, federal benefit books, job search resources, and information about local and national Veteran-related upcoming events.

###