Blake D. Lukis, Director of Framingham Department of Public Works, Resigns Effective October 29

Framingham – Blake Lukis, Director of Framingham Department of Public Works (DPW), resigned today, effective Friday, October 29. Lukis has been the Framingham Director of Public Works since his appointment in July 2020. DPW hired him in 2014.

Upon leaving Framingham, Lukis will become the Executive Director at the Dedham-Westwood Water District.

“Blake Lukis has done an outstanding job as the director DPW, and he has served the City well,” said Mayor Yvonne M. Spicer. “I wish him well in his future endeavors. He will be greatly missed here in Framingham.”

The City will begin searching for a new Director in the coming weeks.
