Arthur-Morency Woods

TRAIL INFORMATION:

Welcome to Arthur-Morency Woods!

Arthur-Morency Woods is a 14.5-acre parcel split between the towns of Framingham and Natick that was acquired by the Conservation Commission in 2001. Once intended to be the location of sewer beds, it ended up laying undisturbed and now offers habitat for an array of flora and fauna. This conservation parcel can be accessed either from Arthur Street, Pumpkin Pine Road, or the intersection of Longview Street and Morency Street.

Trails

Arthur-Morency Woods does not offer one main trail – it is instead comprised of many short and winding trails, making the potential for a different route every visit. For the best experience, users should park at the end of Arthur Street and walk the trails clockwise, hugging the outside of the trail systems to make a loop. Users should expect to come across bridges and narrower trails.
